

Essentials of Medicinal Cannabis: What Practitioners Need to Know

A course designed to educate practitioners on evidence-based medicinal cannabis

REGISTER ONLINE AT MEDICINALCANNABISEDUCATION.ORG.AU

Whether you want to prescribe or just be informed, this two day interactive course is a must for responsible doctors and allied healthcare practitioners.

Why Should You Attend?

Presented by NIIM, ACNEM and NICM, this course will help you understand the science of medicinal cannabis (MC); many of the common clinical applications; how to prescribe it and how to ensure patients are safe.

Learn about the regulations surrounding prescribing of medicinal cannabis, including how to apply to prescribe medicinal cannabis under the TGA Authorised Prescribing Scheme.

Speakers

The course features US medicinal cannabis expert Dr Jeffrey Hergenrather MD and a host of Australian medical and allied health practitioners and academics with expertise and experience in medicinal cannabis.
